The judge discovered that a large bundle of the rinted forms still was in the custody of Clerk Walter Christian and he wanted to know why the precinct registrars had not called for them, as it is their duty to do. Secretary John L. Ingram, of the City Elec-toral Board, promised to again bring the matter to the attention of the andy officers of election.

Registrar Woodson is giving a part

Registrar Woodson is giving a part of his time each day to the task of transferring voters who have moved from one ward and precinct to an-other. Comparatively few applications are coming in from "absentee voters," those who wish to vote by math. "Mr. Woodson commented on the fact that many of the applicants of this class fail to conform to the law's requirements. Some neglect to inclose return postage when applying for the blank ballot. Others fail to state, as the law requires, a reason for voting by mail.
